“The government’s repression of independent voices has significantly worsened as the Oromo protest movement has grown,” said Yared Hailemariam, Director of the Association for Human Rights in Ethiopia (AHRE). “The international community should demand the end of this state-orchestrated clampdown and the immediate release of peaceful critics to prevent the situation from deteriorating further.”

Opinion- Exam-Leaks: Disorientating and Overpowering a Leviathan

Yasin Muhe The Oromo activists achieved yet another spectacular victory by catching the Ethiopian regime off-guard and disturbing the "order" it set for the country's youth. The leaking of the Ethiopian national examinations prior to the exam date greatly tarnished the self-imagery of the government while at the same time … Continue reading

UNPO: Oromo: Protesters Achieve Postponement of University Exams

After an exam paper had been leaked by Oromo protesters, the Ethiopian Ministry of Education had to cancel upcoming university entrance exams. Mostly student-led protests over the rights of the country's marginalized Oromo people have effectively led to the months-long closure of the region's high schools. Therefore, Oromo students had less time to prepare than students in other parts of the country. The leak of exam papers by Oromo students, thereby buying more time for students to prepare for university entrance exams, is thus a major success for the beleaguered movement.

> This is not just a political slight of hand. This is downright tragic. This is simply brutal. This is an act of state terror. This is bureaucracy deployed to disrupt life and terrorize poor citizens. This is a heartless exposure of people to a miserable death on the streets in these dark rainy days. Honderden demonstranten blokkeerden zaterdag een zaal in Rotterdam waar leden van de Ethiopische ambassade aanwezig zouden zijn. De emoties liepen daarbij hoog op.

De activisten zijn woedend op de Ethiopische leiders. Die zouden zich schuldig maken aan ‘genocide’ op de Oromo, de grootste etnische groep in het land.

”Duizenden Oromo zijn gearresteerd en in hechtenis”, staat te lezen in flyers, die door demonstranten werden uitgedeeld aan de Tamboerstraat in Rotterdam.

Eieren
De sfeer tijdens de protest was gespannen. De activisten bekogelden een busje met vertrekkende ambassademedewerkers met eieren.

Het vertrek van de Ethiopische functionarissen ging verder gepaard met veel gejoel en geschreeuw. De politie moest de aanwezige demonstranten in bedwang houden.

Voor de jonge bezoekers in het aangrenzende kinderwerkplaats de Ontdekhoek was de demonstratie even schrikken. Zij moesten enige tijd binnen wachten.

Veiligheidstroepen
Mensenrechtenorganisatie Human Rights Watch sloeg eerder deze maand alarm over het gewelddadige optreden van veiligheidstroepen in het Afrikaanse land.

Zij zouden sinds november vorig jaar tijdens demonstraties zeker vierhonderd activisten hebben gedood. Ook zouden tienduizenden mensen zijn opgepakt.

De Oromo demonstreren volgens de activisten in Rotterdam tegen illegale landroof door de regering, die boeren hun land zou afpakken.

#OromoProtests 9 June 2016: The emergency meeting of Oromia Regional Parliament (Caffee) has removed presidents and vice president of the Supereme Court, Damoze Mame & Boja Tadesse. They have been replaced by Addisu Qabeneessa (President of SW Shawa High Court) and Hussien Adam (president of Arsi Supreme Court) , respectively. The change of guard at supreme court is a result of TPLF's accusation of the Oromia judiciary of being lenient towards Oromo Protesters. The parliament also removed immunity for Zelalem Jemaneh, former OPDO executive committee member and head of the agricultural department.

#OromoProtests News (3 June 2016):In another dramatic turn of events, Bekele Gerba attended court naked (only underwear) and not even shoes and socks. The took this unusual step after they were prevented from wearing black color cloths.

#OromoProtests News (3 June 2016): The TPLF regime expels the entire class of 1st year engineering students of Haramaya University. This decision is passed in the name of the university senate but sources tell us that the faculty including the president are strongly against it. The decision is attributed to the security command post using the chairman of Board of Governors Mr Sileshi (Minister of Fish) to over rule the faculty. The students are vowing not to leave campus until the entire university is closed down. You might recall that students have been boycotting class for the last three weeks demanding release of their classmates and removal armed forces from campus.
